Re: No Home Depot Campaign's Unauthorized Publication of Privileged and Private, Communication

Gentlemen:

We are writing on behalf of our client, Home Depot U.S.A., Inc. ("Home Depot"), regarding the unauthorized publication of a confidential document (the "Confidential Memorandum") on No Home Depot Campaign's ("NHDC") website at www.no2homedepot.com/NEWSFLASH.html and the Daily News' website at www.dailynews.com/ci_6465571. The Confidential Memorandum's disclosure was not authorized, facilitated, or intended by Home Depot, its consultant, or counsel. Home Depot's conclusion, therefore, is that the Confidential Memorandum was disclosed through criminal or improper means. Accordingly, neither NHDC nor any third party has the right or privilege to publish, disclose, or display the Confidential Memorandum. Home Depot has not and does not authorize any publication or dissemination of the Confidential Memorandum and hereby demands that it be removed from both the Daily News and the NHDC website.
